from 'The Forest' tram stop.

As you get off the tram, head towards the park, going through the big car park and get onto the main road, Gregory Boulevard, as you come to the roundabout we are less than five minutes away.

Bus

From City Centre – any 68 or 69 service from City Victoria T4 terminus on Milton Street (Bus stop is just after TK Maxx and before Currys as if heading out of town). Buses are every ten minutes, with a five to ten minutes journey time.

Get off at 'Berridge Road' stop as you enter Sherwood Rise (second stop after Roundabout shown on map (the green space is Forest Park)

When getting off bus go left when leaving the door (as if heading towards to Shell petrol station), go to zebra crossing and take left onto Pelham Road, we are the third building you come to on the left, you can't miss our signage.

Car

Post code NG5 1AP (be careful, sometimes the Sat Nav will take you to the street behind us which is Vivian Ave)

There will be ample parking at the weekend as Pelham Road has no parking restrictions, during the week parking is limited to the car park during office hours due to cars owned by staff attending work using the road.

Tram

We are within a twenty to thirty minute walk
